

The Church of Jesus Christ
of Latter-day Saints
Vancouver Washington
Temple

1819 SE. Bybee Rd. Camas, WA 98607

- The Vancouver temple will serve 31,000 church members in the areas surrounding Vancouver including Camas, Battleground, Longview, Castle Rock, and Long Beach. At full capacity, the temple will accommodate 2,000 patrons weekly.
- The Vancouver temple will support the growing church membership in the Vancouver area, helping to alleviate overcrowding at the Portland Temple and projected growth in the Vancouver area. Church membership in the area has significantly grown since the Portland Temple was dedicated in 1989.
- Temple engineers and architects have complied with all the City of Camas ordinances, including those regarding lighting and land use. In this area, Regional Commercial (RC) there are no building height limitations. Both federal and state laws allow places of worship the ability to be constructed at the heights currently proposed in the application.
- Traffic engineers have reviewed and analyzed the anticipated impact from the Temple and found not significant impact to the level of service at the study intersection (Fehr & Peers Traffic Impact Analysis available for review on Vancouver Temple Website)